GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B, except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp required thereon. If he omits to do so, the party for whose use it is made may stamp it before it is used; but in no case can it be legally used with out a stamp; and if issued after the 30th of June, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot be afterwards effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument to appropriately stamp it renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred Dollars.

Suits or commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrant, publication, petition, &c., in which cases these, as the original processes, severally require stamps.

Writs of certificates are subject to stamp duty as original processes

The jurat of an affidavit taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits is held to be a certificate, and subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits or legal proceedings

Certificates of loans in which there shall appear any written or printed evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand, or at a time designated, are subject to stamp duty as "Promissory Notes."

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same stamp duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof of the amount secured by the mortgage at the time of its assignment, there must be fixed a stamp or stamps denoting a duty of fifty cents

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamp to which the instrument is liable under the law may be affixed and cancelled by any one of the parties.

In conveyances of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate, or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on any warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required; and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rate required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case, a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped

The President's Proclamation as Construed by the War Department.

General Canby has issued the following General Orders in regard to the President's proclamation, which orders, it will be seen, are prepared in accordance with instructions direct from the War Department:

1. The foregoing proclamation of the President of the United States is published officially to the troops in this department; and, in conformity with instructions from the War Department, dated April 9, 1866, approved by the President, the following rules are prescribed for the information and government of the officers and men of this command:

1. The proclamation does not remove martial law or operate in any way upon the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands in the exercise of its legitimate jurisdiction under the act of Congress approved March 3, 1865, and "under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the head of the Bureau, and approved by the President;" but resort will not be had to military tribunals when justice can be attained through the medium of civil authority.

2. It does not affect the jurisdiction of military tribunals over offences committed prior to its promulgation, and which then came legitimately within their jurisdiction; but in all cases where arrests have been made, or proceedings instituted, for offences committed subsequent to its date, the case will be dismissed, and the accused parties discharged from custody and turned over to the appropriate civil authority.

3. It does not affect the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States in all cases of captured or abandoned property; the protection of the officers and agents of the Government in the possession and control of such property until disposed of by the authority of the United States; and the protection of private individuals in their titles to such property derived from the United States.

4. It does not affect nor impair in any way the duty of protecting from civil prosecution, or from suits in the State or municipal courts, the persons who, under the orders from the War Department, of January 12, 1866, are entitled to such protection. (See General Orders No. 9, Headquarters Department of Louisiana, of Jan. 28, 1866.)

5. The jurisdiction conferred on military courts by the act of Congress, approved March 2, 1863, and by the thirtieth section of the act of Congress, approved March 3, 1863, and other statutes, and limited in its operation to a "time of war, insurrection, or rebellion," over certain offences committed by persons who are subject to the rules and regulations made for the government of the military and naval forces of the United States, and subject to the Articles of War, is suspended from and after the date of the proclamation as to offences committed after that date. All proceedings before military courts for such offences that have been committed since that date will be dismissed; but the accused parties will be held in custody until they can be turned over to the proper civil authority having jurisdiction over such offences. Commanding officers will immediately report all such cases to Department Headquarters for such order as the case may require.

6. In case of any writ or other process issuing from a State or municipal court against any person imprisoned or any property held by authority of the United States, the officer or agent in whose custody or control the said person or property may be will make a respectful return to the writ or process, setting forth the fact that the said person or property is subject to the judicial or executive jurisdiction, as the case may be, of the United States, and is so held by him, together with such other facts as may be material to the case.

7. If any person shall combine to oppose by force the authority of the United States, or by power to hinder or delay the execution of any law or to seize any property of the United States, or by force or intimidation to prevent any person from accepting or exercising any office under the United States, the military authorities will take such measures as may be needful to protect the property of the Government and the persons of its agents; and will promptly report the facts and the evidence in support of them, to the end that the offenders may be prosecuted under the act of Congress approved July 31, 1861.

8. The division between United States and State jurisdiction is not always distinctly marked; but in all cases where the offence is in violation of any law of Congress, and jurisdiction is committed to the courts of the United States; or when the offence has been committed at any place where the jurisdiction has been ceded or is reserved, the process must issue from a court of the United States. Officers will be guided in their action by the principles established by the Supreme Court in the case of Ableman vs. Booth, 21, Howard, 506. In cases where a concurrent jurisdiction may be exercised, the offenders will be turned over to the civil authorities for trial, unless the prisoners have already been arraigned before a military court and have made their pleas.

9. Commanding officers are enjoined to see that there be no reasonable ground of conflict between the civil and military authorities; and in the case of any process issuing from a court of the United States, military aid will be given, when necessary, to enforce it; but only when the process has been issued by competent authority. The civil authorities of the State will be treated with deference and respect; but no military interference will be authorized except upon requisition by the proper authority, and after the means under the control of that authority have been exhausted.

10. In all cases of the arrest by military authority of persons not in the military service of the United States, or subject to the rules and articles of war, the warrant (order) of arrest will be in writing, and a copy of the order, together with copies of the affidavits, or other evidence upon which the arrest is ordered, will be forwarded to Department Headquarters by commanding officers; and they are specially required to see that the posts or places under their command are not allowed to become asylums for criminals, and that persons not in the service of the United States, or entitled to its protection, be not allowed to establish themselves within the limits of any ceded or reserved jurisdiction.

This is the most seemingly authentic construction of the Proclamation which we have yet seen. It conflicts in many points with what we had supposed to be the purpose of that document, and destroys some of the pleasing anticipations we had formed of its effect. We have no desire to cavil or complain, however, so thoroughly are we convinced of both the sagacity and magnanimity of President Johnson's general course. Even under this exposition of the Proclamation, we are remitted to a few of our civil rights, and to the enjoyment of some (of late) unusual privileges. The rest will come in good time, we hope.

It will be perceived that the second clause covers the habeas corpus case in the matter of Maj. Gee. We presume, however, that Judge Fowle, in rendering his decision in the premises, cannot be influenced by a mere newspaper report of general orders in the State of Louisiana. It is much to be desired that the Governor may receive, before the case comes up on Saturday, some official reply to his communication upon the subject. As yet, no answer has been received.

Must the State remain out of the Union for years and years, or will the people require those members of Congress who cannot take the oath to resign, and elect men who can take it, and thus restore the State to the Union?—That is the question. What does the Sentinel say? The oath referred to is the law of the land. Would the Sentinel remain out of the Union for years without law, or go back by complying with the law?—Standard.

We reply, as we have often heretofore said, that, in the first place, we regard the test-oath as a gross usurpation upon the part of Congress. That body may enquire into the elections and ascertain whether they have been held according to law; they may enquire into the returns and ascertain whether they are genuine or forged, whether they are in proper form or not; and they may enquire whether any member elect has or has not the qualifications prescribed in the Constitution, but they can no more alter them than they can change the tenure of their own office. It is very generally understood that the Supreme Court will so decide, when the case shall be properly presented before them.

We answer, in the second place, that, while we should have been perfectly willing to see men elected to Congress, who could honestly take the oath, provided the other proper qualifications were not wanting, it was and is impossible to obtain such men in but very few Congressional Districts in the South. The Standard itself experienced the difficulty of not finding such. It earnestly advocated the claims of Messrs. Pool, Brown, Caldwell, Russ and Fuller,—none of whom can take the oath; while it gave a lukewarm support to Messrs. Lehman and Bond, who can. That paper should look to its own consistency, before it assumes to prate about the course of others.

We say, in the third place, that the Standard knows perfectly well, that even if men, willing and competent to take the oath, should present themselves for admission into Congress, to-morrow, we should be no nearer representation than we now are. According to the latest programme, which is said to embody the ultimatum of the Radical majority, ability to take the oath is one of the most insignificant of the exactions required. We are, first, to adopt an amendment to the Constitution preventing the State from making any discrimination in its laws on account of color; secondly, to accord to negroes the right of suffrage from and after July 4th., 1876; thirdly, to agree that, between this and that time, there is to be no representation for colored persons not allowed to vote; and then, all these things being conceded, we may be admitted, provided our representatives can swallow the test-oath!

We answer, then, finally, that we prefer being excluded from representation, indefinitely, rather than voluntarily make these oppressive, unjust and iniquitous concessions.

Having so fairly and amiably met the Standard's interrogatory, we claim the privilege of repeating certain enquiries, which we have heretofore proposed to that journal, but which remain unanswered:

1. Will the Standard accept unqualified negro suffrage as a condition of, and equivalent for, representation?

2. Will the Standard inform the people whether Forney spoke truly, when he said: "Ex-Gov. Holden, of North Carolina, boldly declares that President Johnson's policy is a failure?"

3. Will the Standard tell us what has become of its correspondent, "WE SHALL SEE," who asserted that he had personal privity of a secret organization in the State, whose purpose was treasonable to the Government? We charged him with being a traitor, if he really had such knowledge and refused to disclose it to the proper authorities. We repeat the charge.

HOME AGAIN.—Our whilom friend, Lon. Anderson, Esq., has returned from the South, where he was acting in the Quartermaster's Department. He was first engaged at Nashville, Tenn., and from there was transferred to Raleigh, N. C., where he has been the past year.—He is an Andy Johnson man, and says the people of North Carolina are peaceable and well disposed towards the Government, holding a radical Congress responsible for denying them their representation in that body and their rightful place in the Union.—Canton (Ohio,) Democrat.

We had the pleasure of an acquaintance with Mr. Anderson, while he was in this City. We always knew him to be a gentleman of liberal and conservative sentiments, and we are gratified to record his favorable testimony to the bearing of our people. Evidence from such a source is worth a ton of the trash contained in the scribblings of ignorant and prejudiced anonymous letter writers.

Bishop Soule wants to change the name of Methodist Episcopal Church to "Wesleyan Episcopal Church."

"Making Treason Odious."

It has been already mentioned in our columns, that the report of the Committee on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives, to whom the President's message and the communications of the Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General, which accompanied it, recommending a modification of the test-oath, were referred, is emphatically adverse to any change in the existing law on the subject. The committee in their comments say, that if rebels and conspirators, after all their united efforts, be permitted to occupy positions of honor and trust, the effort to make treason odious would prove abortive.

This pretended effort "to make treason odious" is much more likely to make odious and forever detestable the men who are urging and prosecuting it than to have any other effect. Their course of malignity, intolerance and cruelty may be persisted in until the "crack o'doom," but it will never force the true men of the South to attach odium to the course which they pursued in the Revolution. They accept the issues of the struggle manfully and faithfully. Their honor has never yet been tarnished, and it never will be. They will prove themselves above reproach in their new obligations; but they can never be induced to brand themselves with ignoring, or to stigmatize the memories of their brethren who fell in behalf of a cause which, at least, they believed to be a good and just one. No honorable or sensitive mind would expect such debasement.

But because we are unwilling to stoop so low, we must perforce be beat. To that end, we may, as a matter of gracious favor, and for the sake of the name, be called an integral part of the Union, so far as the privilege of paying taxes is involved; but, in other respects, the American reverence for liberty and law is to be foully outraged. We are to be denied mail facilities, or else they must be conducted though the agency of foreign or freedmen postmasters and contractors. We cannot have a place on the floors of Congress, or a voice in the assessment of the taxes which we are compelled to pay to alien tithe-gatherers. Freedmen's Bureau and Civil Rights Bills are to crowd our statute books, in high handed scorn and defiance of the Constitution, the rights of the States and of the citizens. And we must stand dumb, like sheep before the shearers, in the face of these things, for fear that some sensitive patriot, far or near, will distrust our "loyalty," and call us "odious" and "traitors!" And this is to continue indefinitely!

So surely as that President Johnson shall live to wage to a full and final issue his war against these men, their injustice will recoil upon their own heads. They will become odious in the eye of history for ages to come. Posterity will stand aghast at their blindness and their wickedness.

The Funding Act.

We are gratified to learn that the Public Treasurer is in the constant receipt of numerous applications for the funding of State securities under the act of the late Legislature.

As very many of these applications come from Northern creditors, the inference is gratifying that they do not anticipate that there is danger of the State's being turned over to the "tender mercies" of the Radicals.

The New Movement of the Star Chamber---Public Apprehension.

The minds of business men, who are usually so regardless of politics, except as they have momentarily suffered themselves to be unwilling auditors of party politicians, are now agitated by apprehensions that the aggressive measures of usurpation by the star-chamber domination in Congress may lead to fearful results. Once fairly aroused upon a subject that imperils security of person, the happiness of home, and that property which is the fruit of long years of labor and care, the fears of citizens are not more easily quieted than hard to excite. The usual question now of the class above referred to, when one meets another, is, What is coming next? what are we coming to? The precipitation yesterday in the Senate of an unprecedented measure to impair the Executive prerogative, as it has been exercised, without question, by the greatest of our statesmen from the initiation of the Government, is calculated to still further distrust and unsettle the public mind. In view of the conflict portended by this dangerous step of aggressiveness upon the President, a still further declension of faith and confidence in the stability of our Government will undoubtedly be the serious conclusion.—This will add to that volume of fear and distrust, which is everywhere in the country operating, to obstruct the channels of credit, commerce, and general production in all the varied forms of industry and skill, energy and enterprise.

Ordinarily we should not give a second thought to a proposition of a shifting politician, whose record is stained by bad implication or complicity with secessionism in its inception—its first and worst aspect; but as it is supported by original secessionists in principle, of the school of Mr. Wade, the presumption is that the movement is one of star-chamber origin.—During the fierce excitements that raged between the Executive and the Senate in the days of such controlling spirits as Clay, Webster, Calhoun and Benton, no scheme like this was ever adventured upon. Indeed, such statesmen were too much influenced by what intimately affected the common weal, to seek to overturn the recognized prerogatives of the President, as exercised by him from the earliest hours of the existence of the Government of the Federal Union.—National Intelligencer.

TORONTO, April 21.—Colonel Wheeler, one of the prisoners at Cornwall, and, formerly of the rebel army, became so pugnacious during his examination yesterday, and dwelt so effectively on the fact of his being an American citizen, and living under Andrew Johnson's administration, that the Canadian magistrates unanimously decided to let him go.

Venezuelian Land Company.

We publish below, in accordance with our promise to do so, the Circular of Dr. Price, setting forth, in detail, the privileges accorded under the grant to the Venezuelian Land Company.

We have rarely seen more attractive inducements held out to enterprize and industry; but we hold to our already expressed opinion, that it is the duty of our young men, and others, unless impelled otherwise by an inexorable necessity, to cling yet longer to the land of their birth and affections.

SCOTTSVILLE, ALBEMARLE Co., VA., 1866.

DEAR SIR:—Accompanying this you will find a copy of the grant and charter made us by the Venezuelian Government of the Territory of Guiana. Persons desiring more extended information of this beautiful country should consult Humboldt's Travels in South America, being a disinterested description. He pronounces it the most fertile, rich and enchanting region of America. The company has absolute title and control of the entire territory, its mineral and vegetable productions, embracing two hundred and forty thousand square miles, extending from the mouth of the Oronoco to New Grenada, and South to Brazil—an empire of itself in extent, natural wealth and resources—abounding as it does in mines of gold, silver, copper, zinc, lead, coal, iron, petroleum, quicksilver, diamonds; also in vegetable productions the most varied and valuable—Peruvian bark, indigo, and rubber, copaiva, sarsaparilla, logwood, and other rich dye-woods, cabinet woods, ship timber, anatto, vanilla, spices, etc. Its streams literally teem with the most delicious fish, turtles, water-fowl. Its broad savannas afford the richest and most abundant pasturage, rendering it unsurpassed for grazing purposes, cattle increasing with a fecundity elsewhere unknown. Its gold mines are richer than those of California, every pound of quartz yielding an once of pure gold. No country in the world affords such inducements for emigration. A man can enjoy every necessary and luxury of life with one-third the labor required elsewhere to support a bare subsistence.

The Constitution of Venezuela is modelled upon our own, and the emigrant enjoys more enlarged privileges than is possible at present in the South. He obtains citizenship in one year, elects all civil officers, and is free of tax for five years, and if a stockholder in the Company, can import and export duty free. The climate is healthy, the thermometer never exceeding 87 degs. or falling below 70 degs. The staple productions are cotton, tobacco, sugar, coffee, rice, cocoa, tapioca, indian corn, of which three crops can annually be made. Cotton is triennial, yielding three crops from each planting. In the production of this staple we can defy competition. In five years we hope to furnish three millions of bales at 5 cents per pound.

INHABITANTS AND LABOR.—But few whites are found at present; but over 100,000 peons or native laborers, affording abundant, cheap, and efficient labor for the present, and the Company will introduce any requisite amount of Coolie labor.

TRANSPORTATION.—We are arranging for a regular line of steamships from New Orleans and Norfolk to Carino on the Orinoco. After the first Monday in April, the trip will be made in some eight days, at a cost of $60 for each passenger, without meals. All who design to emigrate should forward the funds, without delay, to J. M. Smith & Bro., our shipping agents at Norfolk Va., and secure passage, or they may be delayed indefinitely.

SUPPLIES.—Supplies can be obtained cheaper than in the U. S. at either Laguayra or Trinadad. Emigrants having ability may, however, carry flour and bacon. Beef is abundant and cheap. Fish and turtle cost comparatively nothing; and as two-thirds of the land is ready for the plow, corn, vegetables &c., will soon be in abundance.

PORT OF ENTRY AND CAPITAL will be at "Caroni," at the mouth of the Caroni river.—The Orinoco has here 178 feet soundings, and from this point navigable streams ramify to every point of Guiana, to New Grenada, the remaining States of Venezuela, and by the Carriquiata and Rio Negro steam connection with the entire Valley of the Amazon. As merchants belonging to the Company will have no duty to pay, they can command and control this trade, now in its rude state, counting millions, and capable of indefinite expansion. Every alternate building lot in Caroni will be given free to actual settlers. The future of Caroni promises so dazzling that Southern merchants and artizans should speedily avail themselves of this privilege.

INTENTIONS OF THE COMPANY—Is to establish a distinctive State Government under the liberal and enlightened Republic of Venezuela, which shall be moral, social, and purely Southern in all its characteristics; and by energy and enterprise, and the developement of the natural resources of the country, to extend agriculture, trade, commerce and manufactures, at once rendering the State of Guiana independent in the present, great and happy in the future.

After providing the necessary Steam-Ships to facilitate emigration and introduction of labor, the funds of the company will be used in the purchase of River Steamers, to develope the interior trade, in the systematic developement of the mineral wealth, which is immense, and finally, in the erection of manufactories.

Organization of the Company: Dr. Henry M. Price, the Grantee, obtained the grant, and privileges accorded to the Company and emigrants, in order to organize a company for its settlement on the joint stock privileges—granting to each share of stock 1280 acres of land, in addition to privileges accorded, and also pro rata share of labor. In order to the immediate settlement of one half the land, he has divided the stock into eighty thousand shares—these having the benefit which will accrue to the Company by sale of the remaining half, at increased value. The disposition of the eighty thousand shares is as follows: The grantee, and those originally associated with him in the project, will hold ten thousand shares. Thirty thousand shares are granted to poor Confederate soldiers—preference being given to men of family, simply upon the payment to us of Office Fees, necessary to expenses, &c., $4; the party must also forward to J. M. Smith & Bro., of Norfolk, $60 to pay passage—as it is useless to grant title unless there is a surety the party can and will take possession. When these are done, we forward stock and land coupons. The remaining 40,000 shares are sold at par value of $1,000. Of this, one half ($500) is paid in hand, in some bank, to credit of president and directors Venezuelian Land Company, and the remainder at the call of the directors. Each 5,000 shares elect or select a Director. The fund, thus arising, is used for the benefit of all—in purchase of shipping and steamers, the working and development of the mineral wealth, and the erection of manufactories. All shares of stock share equally in the profits arising from all these sources, and from the sale of land, and also in the labor introduced. It is supposed the mines alone will yield forty millions annually, or fifty per cent. In the issue of this stock there is appended to each share eight coupons for 160 acres of land each, or 1280 acres, transferable without assignment. Such is the plan devised by the grantee for the common benefit of all. We wish to divide the stock equally among the Southern States—say 5,000 shares in each, thus enabling each State to have a Director. We, therefore, wish agents in each county in every State South.

BUSINESS, &c.—We are frequently asked if such and such can get business. All who are industrious, energetic and honest, no matter what the calling, can get employment—as every branch of business will need to be filled—merchants, with some capital; lumber-men, with steam-mills; professional miners, merchants of all kinds, land surveyors, will all realize business at once—a fortune; but at last it is the hard-working, industrious Planter, who turns his attention to cotton, coffee, and tobacco, who will, in this genial and fertile soil, do the best, and in the end acquire more than the fortunes lost here. Let no man of energy hesitate, for one moment, to fall into the ranks—he will at once get business, and acquire property. Leave your family here, and go out yourselves and make provision for them.

Guiana, in the U. S. of Venezuela, is the only country on the globe which meets every indication required by the Southern emigrant. A congenial republican form of government—adequate and most fertile territory, with natural advantages unsurpassed, open for settlement, where he can locate in peace, without losing his national individuality in incongruous and uncongenial masses. These advantages should not be lost sight of—particularly when the land, and all its hidden wealth, is a free gift—the only requirement by the grant being the investment of a fund for the improvement and advancement of the Territory, which investment is for the common benefit and profit of all.—Revolution and political oppression and persecution have ever been the prelude of the settlement of new States—it is so ordained of God. If we expatriate ourselves, as we will, let it be together, as one people. Shoulder to shoulder we bore the brunt of battle—then, let us act together in subduing the wilderness—and not suffer ourselves to be scattered to the four winds of heaven—and in the passing hour be swallowed up and known no more forever. We still have it in our power to create a National Name, which, in its dazzling future, may dim all we could have achieved here. We sought by the throes of battle to give birth to a new nation—the Fates decided against us; brave men succumb not even to fate; let us lay in peace the foundation of a new State—and the gods will smile upon and bless our efforts; and the honor we achieved by our fortitude and bravery here, will follow us, and gild and encircle our national name with a halo of glory.

Persons writing to us and desiring an answer, must enclose four stamps.

Proceedings of Congress.

WASHINGTON, April 24.

SENATE.—Mr. Willey offered a resolution for the relief of the loyal citizens of Berkely and Jefferson counties, W. Virginia. It provides for the payment of citizens in these counties for quartermaster's stores furnished to the army.

Mr. Trumbull said there was a bill now pending to provide for the payment of loyal citizens all over the South, for army stores regularly furnished.

Mr. Willey said he was aware of the fact stated by Mr. Trumbull, but he believed that bill would lead to discussion. All he proposed was to put the counties of Jefferson and Berkely on an equality with the other counties of West Virginia.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

The bill for the admission of Colorado was discussed.

The Senate amendment to the House bill relating to the Habeas Corpus was taken up and not concurred in, and a Committee of Conference ordered thereon.

The consideration of the Army bill was resumed.

A note from a friend in New Orleans asks us to call attention to several peculiar advertisements now appearing in the Southern papers. These advertisements offer rewards for the return of valuable private libraries stolen by officers of the Union armies, and appropriated to their own use during the late war. One gentleman says there were taken from his house some three hundred volumes, mostly rare French and Spanish books, relating to the early history of Louisiana, which cannot be replaced by purchase, and for which he now offers five dollars per volume. Large rewards are also offered (and no questions asked) for the return of other souvenirs stripped from Southern houses, and which are now known to be in the possession of certain captains, colonels, brigadier and major-generals, who have a great deal to say about their public services and very little about their private stealings. Our New Orleans correspondent himself saw six or eight boxes of household knick-knacks and women's and children's clothing which were stolen in Pensacola by Neal Dow, and stopped at the Custom-House in New Orleans. This same Dow was convicted of stealing a silver pitcher from Bradish Johnson.—Libraries, wardrobes, plate closets, and picture galleries in New Orleans, and in other cities, were stripped during the war; and the peculiar performances of Butler and his followers in this line are more notorious in history than are any of their exploits in the field. Peace ought to bring repentance, and, if conscience does not urge the return of these family relics and private property, the large rewards now offered, and which will be offered, ought to induce the particularly "patriotic" to disgorge at least a portion of their plunder. We do not appeal to their sense of propriety, or honesty, or justice. We merely take leave to inform them that they can make a good thing of it pecuniarily by disgorging their plunder.—N. Y. World.

One of our clergymen, Sunday, preached a sermon on the close of the year, wherein he alluded to the "pomp of the regal forests." One of his hearers objected to the sermon, on the ground that it was an abolition discourse. An explanation was asked. "Why," said he, "didn't he say 'pomp of the forest?' and isn't that nigger in the woods, I'd like to know?"

The Hon. George W. Jones, of Iowa, who had two sons in the Confederate army, and who was locked up in Fortress Lafayette by Mr. Seward, gives Forney a terrible drubbing in a recent communication to the Washington Union, in which he replies to some of the Chronicle's stories about him.

The last Indiana regiment in the service has arrived in Indianapolis to be mustered out.

General Grant bought a cigar and got shaved, in Washington, a few days ago. Eastern exchanges please copy.

THESE famous remedies, known throughout the great West of the United States for their extraordinary cures of

are now thoroughly introduced in the State of North Carolina, and can be obtained of all enterprising, first class druggists.

They act as a tonic to all debilitated systems, taken in doses of before meals, and should be found in every family residing in miasmatic districts.

To any skeptic or one who does not believe in these marvelous preparations,

A Box Will be sent Free

If he is not cured with one and not more than two boxes no charge will be made. The price of the Pills is high—say but as they are a perfect cure without trouble or inconvenience, the charge is reasonable enough.

CAUTION.

Watch narrowly and guard yourselves vigilantly against counterfeits. I have just suppressed a notorious counterfeit in Wisconsin, after much trouble and expense. Purchase of only first class druggists and never of peddlers or traveling dealers.

Trial of Major Jno. H. Gee.

SYNOPSIS OF TESTIMONY.

THIRTY-SIXTH DAY.

THURSDAY, April 26, 1866.

J. W. Readdick, sworn: Smith by trade; lives at Salisbury, N. C. Was there when the prisoners of war were there. I worked at the arsenal in the smith's shop—was a detailed man.

I was entitled to double rations, but drew 1½ lbs. flour or 1 lb. meal, ½ lb. beef or ½ lb. bacon. I did not always get that. I went without several times—understood that it was not at the Commissary; the men at the arsenal could not draw their rations.

Lumber was so scarce that some twelve or fourteen of the carpenters were stopped for some time. Capt. A. G. Bonizar was at the head of the arsenal.

We were making axes there, but could not finish them. We had spring-steel, which will not temper. We had a good many axes welded up and split open, but had not cast-steel to put in. Did'nt have more than enough cast-steel to keep up the other tools.

I have seen the prisoners buy things to eat at the wood yard, at the creek, and at the wood yard on the Western Railroad. I saw them when they first came, buying things in town when they went out to the wells under guard to get water. They bought pies, cakes, and one thing or other from the people as they went along.—I never saw them prohibited. I lived within 150 yards of the wood-yard; and when I was there and the trains came in, I saw the prisoners making purchases.

In the month of November there was the greatest scarcity among us men at the arsenal.

Cross-Examined:—We used pine lumber at the arsenal, some green and some dry. We dried that at the arsenal. I don't know the quantity of wood around the prison, as I am not acquainted with the country; I was confined in the arsenal.

Each carpenter used his own tools. I can't say whether the prisoners had free privileges to purchase, but I never saw any one prohibited. I bought and sold to them, myself. I did not suffer for food, because I brought it from home. The scarcest time was for about two weeks—We never had a plenty. I was entitled to double rations, but didn't ge them.

To Court.—I understand that double rations meant double what was allowed to a soldier in the field. I don't know what was issued to the troops at the prison.

(The testimony given before the Court, today, will be contined in to-morrow's issue.—The Court has adjourned over until Monday next, 10 o'clock, A. M.)

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We call attention to the Professional Card of Messrs. Osborne & Barringer, Charlotte.

Thomas McCracken, six miles west of Hillsborough, advertises a mare stolen, and offers a reward of $25 for her recovery.

"Who wants a Piano?" See the Card of J. M. M. Caldwell, President of Concord Female College.

Peter R. Davis has qualified as Executor of the Estate of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, deceased.

Mrs. W. R. Richardson will take several boarders. Persons desiring good board, good rooms, and a most desirable locality, would do well to apply at once.

PERSONAL.—The venerable Ex-Chief Justice Ruffin, and the Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., were in this City, on yesterday.

ELECTION IN DUPLIN CO.—Gov. Worth has issued a writ of election to the Sheriff of Duplin country, for a delegate to the State Convention, which assembles on the fourth Thursday of May, in place of Rev. D. B. Nicholson, deceased, to be held on Thursday, May 17th.

EXCURSION PARTY AT WELDON.—A pleasant party of excursionists met at Weldon on Tuesday, composed of citizens from Petersburg, Richmond, Raleigh, and Wilmington. The assemblage had the combined object of business and pleasure, and for discussion, in the intervals of the former, sundry car-loads of such promoters of sociability as champagne, &c., were provided.

One purpose of the meeting was the adoption of some measures for the regulation of freights, &c., over the roads leading to Virginia.

Our cotemporary, Col. S. D. Pool, of the Goldsboro' News, has received from the Governor and Council an appointment as a member of the Literary Board. Col. Pool has been long connected with the educational cause in North Carolina, and will bring to the position a ripe experience, which can but be beneficial to the interest of the State.—Wilson Carolinian.

SUPERIOR COURT.—Judge Buxton having arrived in the city on Monday night last, the court was duly opened yesterday morning and proceeded to regularly organize. The grand jury were selected and sworn, of which body Col. E. D. Hall was chosen foreman. Judge Buxton's charge to the grand jury was an able and efficient one, and delineated plainly his Honor's firmness in the course which he intended to pursue in regard to transgressors against the laws of the State. The grand jury then retired for consideration, and returned after being absent several hours and delivered six bills of indictment.

The Solicitor, Mr. Neill McKay, was present, and appeared busy in getting his witnesses together preparatory to the taking up of the State docket. Very little business of importance was transacted during the day, except the execution of a sentence upon a freedman in a case of larceny, which was first brought up several years since.

The case was first brought before the County Court and from thence went up to the Superior Court, which sentenced the defendant to receive twelve lashes upon his bare back. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court, which decided that there was no error in the judgment.—The case was taken up again at this term of the Superior Court, and the sentence was duly executed by the Sheriff.—Wil. Journal.

THE CHOLERA AT KEY WEST, FLA.—We learn from a gentleman who has just arrived in our city from Key West, that the cholera is prevailing in that place to an alarming extent.—Mobile Register, 17th.

General Sheridan still refuses to let Confederate emigrants sail from New Orleans to Mexico.

SOUTHERN DIGNITARIES.

Robert E. Lee is expected here in a few days, and his secesh friends are making due preparations to show him marked attention.—Tribune Letter.

MASONIC VISITATION.

President Johnson, who is a member of the Masonic fraternity, has invited the Supreme Council of the Southern Jurisdiction to visit him.

FAST DAY TO BE APPOINTED.

It is reported that the President will soon issue a proclamation setting apart the 17th proximo as a day of fasting and prayer, in view of the anticipated visit to this country of the cholera.

WHITE VERSUS BLACK.

About noon to-day considerable excitement was occasioned on Third street, near the corner of C. street, by a number of soldiers attacking colored people indiscriminately, and for a time things looked very squally. The row appears to have had its origin in a colored man, at the depot, striking a white man, before 12 o'clock, and a few soldiers standing near pitched into him and followed him up to the City Hall, others joining until the crowd was increased to about fifty.—Star.

A PRESIDENTIAL JOKE.

A simple-minded Republican office-seeker from Connecticut closed a recent application to the President with the inquiry whether the breach between the President and Congress could be repaired. The President, on the spur of the moment, replied by mail that he was not now repairing breeches so much as he was.—This is considered a very fair thing by those who joked with "A. Johnson" twenty-odd years ago.

ADMISSION OF COLORADO.

The Senate will probably admit the two Senators elect from Colorado this week. The question has been made a vital one as between the Radicals who follow the lead of Mr. Sumner, and the Republicans proper, who are with Mr. Fessenden. We shall see how many uncompromising Radicals, there may be in the Senate; but there is no doubt that they are in the minority on the Colorado question.

OTHER BILLS.

The Bankrupt bill will be apt to pass upon the next trial. The bill extending suffrage to the negroes of Washington will also pass, but will be vetoed. And the Thad. Stevens amendment to the Constitution, requiring negroes and whites to be placed upon an equality as to the right to vote, will meet the same fate.

GENERAL SICKLES.

The President has nominated General Daniel Sickles as Minister Resident at the Hague, in Holland, in place of James S. Pike, resigned.

ANOTHER BLOW AIMED AT THE PRESIDENT.

On Monday, in the Senate, Mr. Trumbull moved that no person exercising or performing the duties of any office, which by law is required to be filled by the advice and consent of the Senate, shall, until he is confirmed by the Senate, receive any compensation, unless commissioned to fill a vacancy occasioned during the recess of the Senate and since its last adjournment. Not acted upon.

THE NEW AMENDMENT.

I cautioned you on Friday against believing the rumor that the President had agreed to the draft of an amendment which had been submitted to him, looking to the representation of the Southern States in Congress. He has done nothing of the kind; and there are reasons for doubting whether he would agree to any amendment for that purpose, or any plan of action, save the one he so fully laid down in his speech of Wednesday evening. He does not consider that any such amendment is required.—Correspondence Philadelphia Ledger.

THE SUPREME BENCH.

I am informed that the President is utterly opposed to the House bill abolishing one of the seats on the Supreme Bench. Such action would have been well enough had not the States which that particular circuit represents returned to their allegiance; but having thus returned, he contends that Congress has no right to abolish the circuit. Hence his appointment of Judge Stansbury to the vacant seat and his desire for that gentleman's confirmation. This desire may not be realized, but if it is not, and the Senate pass the House bill, the chances are that it will be vetoed.—Ib.

Later from Europe.

NEW YORK, April 25.—The steamship Southampton, with Liverpool dates to the 11th, has arrived at Queenstown.

The ship Eliza, for Bremen from New York, was run into and sunk off Portland, and all on board but one perished.

The London merchants propose giving Mr. George Peabody a banquet before he leaves for America.

The Times Paris correspondent says that Marshal Niel, who commands one of the greatest French military divisions, has had an interview with the French Emperor in Paris. It is inferred that if war breaks out between Prussia and Austria, a corps of observation would be formed on the Rhine, with Niel commanding.

The Italian Ambassador at Berlin, in a dispatch from that city, announces war as inevitable. Italy is preparing, in case war occurs, to attack Austria in Venetia.

COMMERCIAL MATTERS.

LIVERPOOL, April 11th.—The Cotton market is dull and irregular. Owing to the German difficulty and excessive receipts, a decline of one penny per pound has taken place.

Consols 86¼ to 86¼; U. S. five-twenties 71¼ to 72¼.

The Rev. Dr. Bacon, of New Haven, said in Providence, in a lecture, a few weeks ago, that it he had the power, he would not suffer a Southern minister to vote, or take any part in the restoration of the cotton-growing States.

M. Victor Floucher, the youngest Justice of the Supreme Court of France, fell dead of apoplexy, on the bench, a few days ago. M. Victor Hugo married his sister, and it was at his house the poet lay concealed during the storm of the coup d etat.

A frolicsome member of Congress from Dakota the other day bought a snapping turtle and put it in the desk of a venerable member from Pennsylvania, and then asked the member for a sheet of paper. The unsuspecting gentleman nearly lost one of his fingers by the trick, greatly to the delight of the practical joker.

There were twelve new cases of cholera at the New York quarantine on Saturday and five deaths. On board of the England the disease has lost its violence.

Mr. Fairholt, an eminent English artist, died in London on the 5th inst. His success in wood engravings was unrivalled

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL, Discoverer of a new Medical System based upon chemical principles, whose vast internal doses of mercury, which poisons and paralyze the bowels, must give present relief to the men who destroys health and life, with from one to two of his ex traordinary Pills and cure the most virulent cases with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the nauseous and loathings of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of these, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the mass that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite and render the spirits light and buoyant. There is no griping, and no action in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Uterous and genitive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established

Ætna Company, of Hartford,

Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.

All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assetts of $2,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $500, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the pinchings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8,819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15, 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683,339 57; total disbursements $527,805 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155,234 33.

In Raleigh, a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, if never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.
